

beverage list

Within these pages, you will find a concise range of specialty beverages selected to enhance your dining experience. We encourage you to explore our range of premium sake, proudly sourced, including ranges imported exclusively for Sake Restaurant & Bar.

All of our sake's are classed in the superior 'Special Designation' category of quality, ensuring the fine, artisanal nature of the sake is preserved by adhering to strict production methods.

Our brewing partner is the Nakashima Brewing Company, whose signature label, Kozaemon, is handmade in the mountains of Japan's Gifu prefecture. With a family brewing history spanning over 300 years, this boutique brewery's dedication to its craft and the quality of its product can be experienced through our sake selection.

Kozaemon Nakashima has generously introduced us to a further handful of small, family owned breweries located throughout Japan, all producing regionally distinct, boutique sake.

We hope you enjoy our list and please ask your waiter about our current sake flights.

Kampai!

Koshu

Koshu was first cultivated in the Caucasus Region in Asia Minor and came to Japan more than 1,200 years ago, via the Silk Road through China. When wine-making started in Japan in 1874, it quickly became not only the main, but also the most important variety.

Yamanashi, Japan

Mt. Kayagatake is well-known for being the last place Kyuya Fukada, author of the famous "One Hundred Famous Japanese Mountains", visited before he passed away.

The wine is made from Muscat Bailey A, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Merlot grapes grown on the foothills of Mt. Kayagatake, including those from estate-managed vineyards, at an altitude of 400m to 700m. Cultivated in an area blessed with cool climate and abundant sunshine, the resulting wines are refreshing and yet structured.
