Featured Producer

Weingut Joh. Jos. Prüm

One of the finest estates in the Mosel, Germany.

Founded by Johann Josef Prüm in 1911, the winery rapidly built a reputation for its racy, pure expressions of Riesling, known for their balance, intensity, purity of fruit as well as their distinctive mineral character.

The quality of their wines lies mostly in the majesty of the vineyards that have been in continuous production for some 2000 years!

These vineyards sit alongside each other, on one continuous slope, in the middle Mosel. Bernkasteler Badstube, Graacher Himmelreich, Wehlener Sonnenuhr and Zeltinger Sonnenuhr.

In The Wines of Germany, Stephen Brook writes “With the rise of so many excellent winemakers in the Mosel, one might have supposed that Joh. Jos. Prüm, with its profound conservatism, might have been overtaken and left behind. Not a bit of it.

The Estate remains where it has been for decades: at the summit.”
